Obituary

Calvin Freeland (known to his friends as Sticky or Stick) was born on June 11, 1935, in Calvert County, MD to the late Irma Wallace Roy and Calvin Freeland, Sr.; grandson of the late Daniel and Ella Gross Wallace. At a young age, the family moved to Baltimore, MD, followed by an eventual move to Hyattsville, MD.

Calvin entered into eternal rest on Wednesday, March 18, 2015, at Crofton Care and Rehabilitation Center, Crofton, MD, upon discharge from Anne Arundel Medical Center, Annapolis, MD.

He attended North Brentwood Elementary School, Lakeland Junior High School, and graduated from Fairmont Heights High School in Chapel Oaks, MD.

On May 24, 1997, he was united in marriage with Thelma (Contee) Stewart.

Calvin was an only child, but he and his cousin Thurman (Pickle) Plater (Eudora) were as close as any siblings could ever be. He was also extremely close to his beloved cousin, Mary E. Fletcher (Lovie), and two sister-in-law Bernice Bell and Celestine Contee.

In his earlier years, he enjoyed playing baseball on the sandlot teams, football, pitching horse shoes, and of course basketball; where he was one of the star players on Fairmont Heights A-1 basketball team. During a game, you could hear a cheer of "Sticky, Sticky, he's our man, if he can't do it Ducie can!" Of course the cheer would change to fit other players on the team as appropriate.

Calvin joined the United States Army in 1960 where he became a sharpshooter. He was honorably discharged in 1964.

He was a member of Restoration Fellowship Center in Upper Marlboro, MD.

He was a welder and later a truck driver for Showcase Furniture in College Park, MD. After he retired, he enjoyed listening to gospel music, fishing, hunting, gardening, long drives, vacations, trips to the casino with his wife, and visiting with friends in Calvert County and Bowie.

Calvin leaves to cherish his memory his devoted and beloved wife, Thelma (T.A.) of 17 years, aunt Mildred Freeland Ray (age 100), uncle Malcolm Freeland, four children George (Carolyn) Christian, Gregory Freeland, Rhonda (Maurice) Clark, and Regina (Gary) Brown, (Little Mama) Gale Wilson (JW), Ruth Thomas (Reginald), Richard Lancaster, the late Barbara Singletary, Maunda Williams, Daniel Singletary, 22 grand-children, 20 great-grand children, and a host of relatives and friends.

JEROME

William Jerome Gillespie, Sr. was born May 15, 1945, to Bernice Harvey and adopted and raised by Lenard Harvey from the time he was eight years old. He was called to rest on September 11, 2015, in Annapolis, Maryland. Jerome grew up in Fairmont Heights, Maryland and graduated from Fairmont Heights High School in 1963. Jerome was an avid sports player in school playing multiple sports and he loved to play the piano.

After graduation in June 1963, Jerome enlisted in the U.S Army and served during the Vietnam War. At the end of his military service, Jerome returned home and became a Computer Technician and in this career he worked for IBM, CELTECH, and Lockheed Martin.

Jerome leaves to cherish his memory his children: Darell (Pamela) Gillespie, Belen Gillespie, LaShawn Gillespie, Anthony Gillespie, Sr., 18 grandchildren, and 9 great-grand children. Jerome also leaves to cherish his memory his parents Lenard and Bernice Harvey; two sisters, Jacqueline Lancaster and Jocelyn Cole, and one brother Howard Gillespie, Sr. Jerome is also survived by his former spouse, Yvonne Foster Gillespie and a host of other relatives and friends. Jerome is preceded in death by his wife, Cheryl E. (Proctor) Gillespie, a son, William J. Gillespie, Jr., and a daughter, Michele Pollard.

Alma Mater

It's Fairmont Heights High School
Our Alma Mater fair
In sunlight and star shine
We see thee in all thy glory.
The gray and maroon, thy colors so glorious,
Ever we praise and hold them
High to the breeze as the symbol
Of our unfailing allegiance.
This anthem, Fairmont Heights, our pledge
Of trust shall be
That thy sons and daughters shall keep faith
With thee forever.
